

On Labor day the working men and women participate in processions to defend their rights and safeguard their interests

