

Happy HOLI!

Hello, Sanju again. Don't worry Love stays always with us. He hasn't left me alone. He said, whenever we'll help someone, shall decide and won't harm anyone, plant the trees, enjoy every festival but in a Nature friendly way, help the poor creatures like birds, animals, ...then he'll make us feel that He, Love, is staying inside our hearts!

He said, as long as your heart beats, You should Love everyone, like you do to yourself..

Shall meet you again, till then,
keep on smiling and loving!
